

Divorced or Separated Couples

We have unfortunately encountered numerous problems with reimbursement for services in cases of children whose parents are divorced or separated. Because of this, we ask that the parent bringing the child into the office be responsible for payment that day.

We realize this can be a difficult situation for all concerned; however, Dr. Shindell's office cannot serve as an intermediary.

Thank you for your cooperation.